

COUNCIL FOR CADET RIFLE SHOOTING COMPETITIONS OFFICER

INVITATION TO APPLY FOR THE ABOVE POST

Location: Derby Lodge, National Shooting Centre, Bisley, Surrey GU24 0NY.

Salary: £31K gross annually.

Type of employment: permanent and full-time.

Closing date for applications: Midday, Wednesday 14th December 2022

The Role. The Council for Cadet Rifle Shooting (CCRS) promotes and delivers the higher level of shooting across the 5 MoD-sponsored cadet youth movements (the Combined Cadet Force (CCF), the Sea Cadet Corps (SCC), the Voluntary Cadet Corps (VCC), the Army Cadet Force (ACF) and the Air Training Corps (ATC)). The role of the Competitions Officer is to support the Shooting Manager in the efficient planning, organisation and execution of all CCRS shooting activities throughout the year. This is an exciting opportunity for those who are passionate about contributing to the development of young people and helping them become responsible citizens.

Deliverables. Main tasks will be:

- 1) Work with the Shooting Manager to plan, organise and oversee national finals across the major shooting disciplines, winter postal competitions, courses and conferences.
- 2) Assist with the selection of UK international teams; help with the hosting of teams visiting the UK.
- 3) Manage and control rifles, ammunition and other equipment. Secondary duties will include health and safety and security.

Required attributes/skills/knowledge. Main requirements are:

- 1) Possess the personality and character to integrate easily into a successful team and help young people be all they can be.
- 2) Intelligent, reliable and able to reach balanced decisions.
- 3) Experience of shooting and range work and working safely with rifles and ammunition.
- 4) Effective verbal and written communicator; user capable with MS Office.
